INTRODUCTION

The Kapisanang Kimika ng Pilipinas Southern Tagalog Chapter is a professional organization of chemists and professionals in chemistry-related fields who are in the academe, industry, research and government, and who are based, working, or have linkages in the Southern Tagalog region. The annual convention of the Kapisanang Kimika ng Pilipinas – Southern Tagalog Chapter (KKP-ST) is the major activity of the society. It provides the members with opportunities for updating their knowledge of chemistry, exchanging ideas on current technologies, and forging collaboration on current researches in chemistry and related fields as well as on national issues that impact on the chemistry profession.

THEME

The theme of the 38th Annual KKP-ST Convention is

Emerging Nanotechnology Applications for National Development and Global Competitiveness

DATE & VENUE

The convention will be held on 4-5 November 2009 at the D.L. Umali Auditorium, SEARCA Bldg., Lanzones Rd., UPLB, College, Laguna.

PROGRAMME

The program will run for two days and will consist of plenary lectures, oral and poster presentations of scientific papers, instrumentation exhibits and the annual business meeting.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Members are invited to present oral and poster papers. The topic could be an original research or a review of a recent development in chemistry and related areas. It is encouraged but not compulsory that topics are related to the theme.
